Preparing for a career in Business

Colgate University
Business/management and financial services are the top two career fields for Colgate graduates. Of recent graduates have pursued a career in financial services or other business-related fields.

COMPANIES THAT ACTIVELY RECRUIT COLGATE GRADUATES

Barclays Capital
Chobani
Citigroup
Deutsche Bank Securities, Inc.
Federal Reserve Bank of New York
Goldman, Sachs
JPMorgan Chase & Co.
Macquarie Capital

Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc.
Microsoft
Morgan Stanley
NYSE Euronext
PricewaterhouseCoopers
Procter & Gamble
Sotheby’s

RELATED COLGATE COURSES

Chinese Economy
International Economics
Industrial Organization
Topics in International Trade

Financial Markets
Growth and Distribution
States, Markets, and Global Change

Payscale.com ranks Colgate 13 out of 1,058 schools for mid-career salary, tied with Notre Dame, Dartmouth, and Harvard.
EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

- Colgate’s semester-long economics study group in London concludes with student internships in fields that include banking and business.

- The Colgate Women in Business club, with more than 150 members, travels to New York City for networking events, hosts regular career planning sessions, and had the opportunity to sit down with Facebook’s Sheryl Sandberg when she visited campus.

- The Aaron Jacobs ’96 Endowed Fund provides stipend support for Colgate students who wish to intern in the financial or business fields.

THOUGHT INTO ACTION

- Colgate University’s Thought Into Action Institute pairs students with successful alumni entrepreneurs. These mentors volunteer their time to help guide student non-profit and for-profit ventures. Visit TIAInstitute.com for more information.
ALUMNI

J. Darius Bikoff ’83, creator, Energy Brands, Inc. (makers of Glacéau’s Vitaminwater)
Gregory Blatt ’90, CEO, IAC/InterActiveCorp
Lawrence Bossidy ’57, former chairman and CEO, Honeywell International, Inc.
Stephen Burke ’80, president and CEO, NBC Universal
Chase Carey ’76, president and COO, 21st Century Fox
Stephen Howe ’83, Americas Managing Partner, Ernst & Young
Robert Kindler ’76, vice chairman and global head of mergers and acquisitions, Morgan Stanley
Mark Murphy ’77, president and CEO, Green Bay Packers
Raymond McDaniel Jr. ’80, CEO, Moody’s Corp.
Duncan Niederauer ’81, CEO, NYSE Euronext
Carole Palermo ’83, executive vice president and chief of staff, MTV Networks
G. Kirk Raab ’59, Former CEO, Genentech Inc.
Katie Finnegan ’05, co-founder, Hukkster.com
Harry Mariani ’59, president, Banfi Vintners