Release of HIV-Related Information

Please be aware that the records you have authorized for release may include information relating to a discussion, testing, or treatment of HIV or AIDS.

If you do not want such information to be included in this release, please write "exclude HIV-related information" on the "Special Instructions" area of this form.

Confidential HIV-related information is any information indicating that a person had an HIV-related test, or has HIV infection, HIV related illness or AIDS, or any information that could indicate that a person has been potentially exposed to HIV.

Under New York State Law, confidential HIV-related information can only be given to people you allow to have it by signing a written release or to people who need to know your HIV status in order to provide medical care and services, including medical care providers; jail, prison, probation and parole employees; emergency response workers and other workers in hospitals or other regulated settings or medical offices, who are exposed to blood/body fluids in the course of their employment; and organizations that review the services you receive.

Redisclosure of HIV/AIDS, Alcohol or Drug Treatment, Mental Health Treatment Information

With some exceptions, health information once disclosed may be redisclosed by the recipient. If I am authorizing the release of HIV/AIDS related, alcohol or drug treatment, or mental health treatment information, the recipient is prohibited from redisclosing such information or using the disclosed information for any other purpose without my authorization unless permitted to do so under federal or state law. If I experience discrimination because of the release or disclosure of HIV/AIDS related information, I may contact the New York State Division of Human Rights at 18883923644. This agency is responsible for protecting my rights.
