

SPRING SCHEDULE 2024

Selected Topics in the History of Medicine

Date/Time: Wednesday, January 31, 3:00-4:30 pm

Location: The Palace Theater, Hamilton

Presenter: Dr. Rich Cohen is a retired family physician with a 44-year medical practice in Hamilton. He served as Community Memorial's first Chief of Family Medicine and its first Director of Continuing Education.

One Painter's Journey: From the Age of AIDS through Climate Catastrophe

Date/Time: Thursday, February 15, 3:00-4:00 pm

Location: The Palace Theater, Hamilton

Presenter: Katherine Kuharic is Professor of Art at Hamilton College. Her work has been exhibited in the U.S. and abroad with a number of solo exhibitions. She has received many awards and honors, most recently, the Emily Harvey Foundation Fellowship in Venice, Italy.

Following the Trail of Two Adirondack Women to their "Wildwood" Home

Date/Time: Thursday, February 24, 3:00-4:30 pm

Location: The Palace Theater, Hamilton

Presenter: Ellen Percy Kraly is Professor of Geography and Environmental Studies Emerita at Colgate University. She began teaching at Colgate in 1984 and has served as director of the Upstate Institute, Director of the Environmental Studies Program, and Interim Provost.

Accessing New York's Cultural Heritage through Digital Collections

Date/Time: Wednesday, March 13, 3:00-4:00 pm

Location: The Palace Theater, Hamilton

Presenter: Ryan Perry is the Executive Director of the Central New York Library Resources Council and the Statewide Project Coordinator for New York Heritage.

Beyond “Facts vs. Opinions”

Date/Time: Friday, March 29, 2:30-4:00 pm

Location: The Palace Theater, Hamilton

Presenter: Ben Lennertz is a Professor of Philosophy at Colgate University specializing in the Philosophy of Language, Epistemology, and Philosophy of Mind. He is widely published and has received a number of fellowships and prizes.

American Art and Culture in the Gilded Age

Date/Time: Wednesday, April 24, & Thursday, April 25, 3:00-4:30 pm both days

Location: The Palace Theater, Hamilton

Presenter: Mary Ann Calo is Professor Emerita of American Art. At Colgate University she offered a specialized course on the Gilded Age and related topics.

The Center: Forty Years of Refugee Resettlement

Date/Time: Wednesday, May 1, 2:30-4:00 pm

Location: The Palace Theater, Hamilton

Presenter: Shelly Callahan is Executive Director of The Center in Utica, New York, which provides services related to immigration, adult learning, cultural competency and many other topics that serve to collaboratively build a community of many cultures.

American Literature and the Environment

Date/Time: Thursday, May 16, 3:00-4:00 pm

Location: The Palace Theater, Hamilton

Presenter: Ben Child is a Professor of English at Colgate University. He teaches courses in American Literature and Environmental Humanities. His current research addresses literary productions and interpretations of U.S. populism.