If you cannot meet the New York State Residence requirements, you may be eligible for a Standard document. The Standard document will not be accepted for boarding a domestic flight or entering a federal building without a secondary ID.

* Only if applying for a Standard document.

ALL APPLICANTS MUST:

1. Complete Application for Permit, Driver License or Non-Driver ID Card (form MV-44).
2. Present required proofs of identification. You may visit the New York State DMV's online document guide at <https://process.dmv.ny.gov/DocumentGuide> OR refer to the tables on pages 2 & 3 for acceptable proofs.
3. License and Learner Permit applicants must pass a Vision Test.
4. Pay fees. You can pay with credit card, cash, or check or money order payable to: "Commissioner of Motor Vehicles".

REQUIREMENTS:

- Full Legal Name:
 - ◆ The combination of your full legal name - first, middle (if applicable), last and suffix (if applicable). This full name will appear on your card.
 - ◆ If your name has changed due to marriage, divorce, or legal name change, you must bring original or certified copies documenting the change (marriage certificate, divorce decree, court issued documents). If your name has changed multiple times, you must bring multiple documents that link all names.
- Mutilated Documents:
 - ◆ DMV will not accept any damaged or mutilated documents, or documents with any alterations or erasures. DMV will confiscate any document that appears to be fraudulent. If you submit a fraudulent document, you could be subject to criminal prosecution.
- One Proof Per Source or Type:
 - ◆ DMV will not accept more than one document of the same type of proof or from the same source. For example, DMV will accept only one major credit card statement or one utility bill, or DMV will not accept a bank statement and a credit card statement from the same financial institution.
- Current New York State Address:
 - ◆ Each document must show your current address in New York State.
 - ◆ An address with a P.O. box is not acceptable.
 - ◆ Your current address will appear on your REAL ID or Enhanced document.
- Foreign Passport:
 - ◆ If you are submitting a foreign passport as proof of lawful status, you must have either:
 - a valid Visa and an I-94 issued by Immigration & Naturalization Service/ Department of Homeland Security or Stamp Issued by Customs & Border Patrol
 - a valid I-551 stamp - Type of Lawful Status determined by Department of Homeland Security verification
 - a valid I-551 statement on the Visa - Type of Lawful Status determined by Department of Homeland Security verification
- Temporary Lawful Status:
 - ◆ If you have temporary lawful status, be prepared to show current documentation.
- Additional Social Security Card Options:
 - ◆ If you have a valid New York State Photo Document, you may submit one of the following documents instead of your Social Security Card. The document must display your full Social Security Number.
 - Federal or New York State Income Tax W-2
 - Annual Social Security Statement (SSA-1099)
 - Federal or New York State Income Tax or Earning Statement (SSA-1099)
- Social Security Ineligibility:
 - ◆ If you are not eligible to have a Social Security Number, you must provide a letter from the Social Security Administration (SSA) dated within 30 days of your office visit stating you are not eligible for a Social Security Number. You must also show the Department of Homeland Security documentation that was issued by the SSA to determine you are not eligible.
 - ◆ For information on how to obtain a duplicate card or for your local SSA office address, go to www.ssa.gov

TO APPLY FOR A:Learner Permit - Class D (Operator) or M (Motorcycle):

- You must pass a written test and a vision test. The driver manual and practice exams are available on our website at dmv.ny.gov
- You must be at least age 16 to apply for a learner permit or driver license. Parental consent is required if you are age 16 or 17, unless you are age 17 and have a Driver Education Certificate of Completion (form MV-285).
- New drivers receive a permit that can be valid for more than one year. If you have temporary lawful status and are applying for a REAL ID, you will receive a document that expires no later than the expiration date on the temporary lawful status document.

Non-Driver ID Card:

- There is no age restriction to obtain a non-driver ID card, however if you are under age 16, parental consent is required.
- If you are a Supplemental Security Income (SSI) recipient, please bring documentation with you to the office.

New York State license by transferring an out-of-state license:

- The written and road test may be waived if you hold a Driver License issued by another U.S. State, U.S. jurisdiction, Canadian Province, or Canadian Territory that has been in effect for 6 Months and is not expired more than 2 Years.
- If the issue date on your license is within the past 6 months, you must obtain a certified copy of your driving record to show you have had a license for more than 6 months.
- New York State will retain your out-of-state license.
- Parental Consent is required if you are under 18 years old.

TO RENEW A:Learner Permit - Class D (Operator) or M (Motorcycle):

- You must have passed a written test within the last 2 years.

Driver License:

- You must pass a vision test. If you have passed a vision test at an authorized Vision Registry provider, you may be able to renew your license online at dmv.ny.gov.

Non-Driver ID Card:

- You may be able to renew your Non-Driver ID online at dmv.ny.gov.

TO UPGRADE A:DJ or MJ license to a D or M license:

- If you are age 17, bring your Driver Education Certificate of Completion (form MV-285). If you are age 18, you do not need to visit an office, a document will automatically be mailed to you.

Higher class license or add a license class:

- To upgrade to a Class E license you must pay an additional license fee.
- To obtain a Class A, B, or C license you must pass the General Knowledge CDL written test and you may be required to pass a CDL Endorsement written test. Class A and B licenses also require a learner permit and a skills test. You will have to prove lawful status and proof of New York state residence.
- If you apply for a Farm Endorsement (F or G) or a Tow Truck Endorsement (W) you will be issued a Class C license.
- You may submit a New York State Abstract or New York State Photo Document Renewal Invitation (MV-2) as proof of residence when applying for a Standard Commercial Driver License.
- You may submit an Employment Authorization Card (I-688B or I-766) as proof of lawful status when applying for a Standard Commercial Driver License.

TO AMEND A:Name on your existing New York State photo document:

- You must present an original US marriage or US divorce record or certified copy of court issued name change decree in your new name.

Other item on your existing New York State photo document:

- For additional amendment options you may visit <https://dmv.ny.gov/amend>

TO REPLACE A:Lost, mutilated, or stolen New York State photo document:

- DMV recommends reporting stolen documents to local law enforcement before applying for a replacement document. If you report stolen documents to the police prior to visiting the office, be sure to bring a copy of your police report.
